Ana-Maria Guta Anna Vassena Nicola Zambelli			explore these values, asking questions about our relationship with the future, creating communities, growth, living in harmony, and the kind of ancestors we want to be.
Stephanie Lebolt Samanta Malavasi Anna Levenson Dru Blumensheid	IN//BETWEEN #7 EMBERS	April - May (08.04.2022 - 14.05.2022)	The exhibition showcases an experiential installation by four international artists exploring the theme of intimacy being reborn through repressive freedom, using multidisciplinary and immersive techniques that engage the senses and provoke thought.
Bela Balog O Yemi Tubi Vadim Belokovsky Tamara Berger Aengus Cullinan	The Notion of Normalcy - Group Exhibition	May - July (20.05.2022 - 19.08.2022)	The concept of normalcy is explored, questioning its universality and the dangers of achieving it, as recent events (Covid-19 pandemic) have exposed society's vulnerabilities and prompted a reconsideration of what a better future could look like.
Ganna Bogachuk Mariia Kovalchuk Jane Laptii Olha Lobazova Alena Shybunova Anna Voda	Light Conquers Darkness	July - August (21.07.2022 - 25.08.2022)	The motto "Life will conquer death and light - darkness" has become the unifying force for Ukrainians during the invasion of Russia, as Ukraine's cultural heritage, history of assaults from its imperialistic neighbor, and a thrive for life in all its manifestations have instilled a national consciousness to choose life over death, joy over despair, freedom over slavery, and courage over revenge.

Mariia Lutsak Theseas Efsthopoulos Oksana Metka Kifan Alkarjousli	Wann kommen wir an?	January - February (23.01.2023 - 12.02.2023)	The exhibition explores the topic of immigration and the question of integration, featuring the works of four artists who offer different perspectives on the subject, drawing from memories, nature, and working with different materials.
Norbert Bunge Dana Enger Irina Kholodna Mariya Kozhanova Rolf Zöllner	Imposed Traces - Auferlegte Spuren	March - April (07.03.2023 - 10.04.2023)	The exhibition showcases a multidimensional photographic retrospective of different generations of artists linked by their intended view of human life and their relationship with Berlin, exploring the overarching line of the attentive view to East and West, male and female gaze, and inherited memories.
Sebastian Köster Eozeen Lee Jan Lengert	Fleeting Moments?	April - May (14.04.2023 - 19.05.2023)	The exhibit aims to prompt viewers to reflect on the complexity of perception, how our experiences shape our view of the world, and how we can challenge ourselves to engage with our surroundings and understand their unique stories.

Polo Picart (Dancer: Karine Dahouindji)	Le défi de la vie	June - August (02.06.2023 - 25.08.2023)	This innovative proposal by photographer Polo Picart invites us to take a different look at a disease that countless women face yearly: breast cancer. The photographs that make up this project are the result of work carried out with Karine Dahouindji, who, at the age of 29, saw her life affected by this disease.
Ronald Anzenberger Pascal Bateau Olivia Kaufmann Angelika Haak Jung Ui Lee Silvia Lerin Jiajia Li Tanja Major Esther Riegler Merve Sahin Sümer Sayin	Change: transition, innovation or revolution?	September - November (09.09.2023 - 10.11.2023)	Change is an integral part of life, acknowledged by philosophers like Heraclitus and authors like Octavia E. Butler. Kulturschöpfer, as an organization, actively embraces change and adaptation. While change can be challenging, it's crucial to respond flexibly, both individually and as a society. On the occasion Kulturschöpfers ten-year existence, the topic of change is explored emphasizing the value of learning from mistakes and growing together as a community.

Mathieu Cardosi Samuel Davies drain.land Maria Korporal Joana Lucas Sieglinde Obexer Eleanor Oliver	Digital Chaos, Modern Sublime	November - January (24.11.2023 - 12.01.2024)	The exhibition, featuring artists from Berlin and Dundee, delves into the impact of the digital age on art. Addressing the acceleration of technological changes, the works explore the role of different artistic mediums and the disruptive influence of Generative AI. Assemblage emerges as a recurring theme, symbolizing an attempt to find meaning in the chaos of modern life. Employing techniques like digital collage, painting, and code, the artists seek to synthesize overwhelming data into aesthetic forms. The exhibition expresses awe towards the digital apparatus, striving for clarity and engagement with the overwhelming nature of the era through sublimation, creating beauty and searching for meaning amid the chaos.
